The Linthicum Community Fair is TOMORROW! Saturday, September 30

We look forward to seeing everyone at the Linthicum Community Fair TOMORROW! We will be participating in the PARADE that starts at 9 AM at Lindale Middle School on Andover Road and will be walking down Hammonds Ferry Road to St. John's Field at Maple Road.

Congratulations to one of our staff members on winning the SPN Jester Spirit Award. Each week we honor a different faculty or staff member for being awesome!

Congratulations to Ms. Megan Moxley!

WAY TO BE AWESOME, Ms. Moxley!

Joe Corbi's Fundraiser Packets

The youngest child in your family brought home the Joe Corbi's fundraiser packet last week. The fundraiser is "live," so hopefully you are taking orders! This fundraiser will run through October 13. Orders will be delivered November 15.

extended care

Extended Care assistant needed at St. Philip Neri School. This is a paid position! Monday through Friday from 2:45 - 6:00 PM. Must be 18 years of age or older, responsible, energetic, patient, and love kids! Contact Ms. Carla at 667-289-7112.

Please remember to send your child to school with a water bottle. We do not have water bottles to hand out. Donations of bottled water for your child's homeroom are always welcomed!

FACULTY SPOTLIGHT - MR. CHRIS MCGLOIN

I was born and raised in southwest Baltimore City and attended Baltimore Polytechnic High School. From there I attended the University of Maryland, Baltimore County, where I majored in Elementary Education and American Studies, with minors in Mathematics and Psychology. I graduated from college in 1996 and immediately began teaching fourth grade in Baltimore County Public Schools. After 7 years there, I worked as a Pre K 3's teacher for three years. I returned to Baltimore County as a resource teacher, primarily helping students who were struggling in math. In 2015, I started my own tutoring service, and in 2022, I joined the SPN

Mr. McGloin is part of the PINK House

I live with my wife of 13 years, Christina, and I have a 23 year old son named Kian. The 3 of us love to go to Orioles games, Ocean City, and Western Maryland. I have been a huge baseball fan (Orioles!) my whole life, and I am also a pretty big Ravens fan. I played CYO basketball and also some volleyball in high school and college. I love to read, especially crime novels and horror: Stephen King, Toni Morrison, Dennis Lahane, and Ta-Nehisi Coates are my favorite authors. (I actually attended Poly with Mr. Coates' brother, Malik). I also enjoy photography and music; I was a DJ for weddings and graduation parties in the 90's.

← Mr. McGloin and Christina at the Orioles game and at the beach!

My home parish is St. Joseph's Monastery in Irvington. I have been a member of the congregation my whole life. I have been an altar server, a lector, a Eucharistic Minister, a Sunday School teacher, the Confirmation teacher, a youth group mentor, and I've played Jesus in our Passion play.

I am passionate about education. I want each and every student at SPN to thrive and live their best life possible. I try to be the most open and understanding teacher that I can, while also efficiently teaching mathematics and religion. I love it here at SPN!

Dear Students, Families, Teachers, and Staff,

We are starting an Adoration Club on Wednesdays from 3 to 4 to pray for our school and parish community. We will meet in the North Lobby at dismissal, share prayer intentions, and go into the church where Our Blessed Lord, Jesus, is normally exposed in a monstrance on the altar from 9-6 every Wednesday.

We will pray for 30 minutes using prayers that will be available to read and have quiet time. Dismissal will be from the school lobby at 4

Please join us when you are able beginning Wednesday, October 4, 2023. Meeting dates will be posted on the school calendar.

If you have any questions, please email: Marie Jordan at mjordan@spnmd.org

May God bless the St Philip Neri School and Church ~~community~~.

I give _____ grade _____ permission to join Adoration club on Wednesdays, beginning 10/4/2023.

"Know also that you will probably gain more by praying fifteen minutes before the Blessed Sacrament than by all the other spiritual exercises of the day. True, Our Lord hears our prayers anywhere, for He has made the promise, 'Ask, and you shall receive,' but He has revealed to His servants that those who visit Him in the Blessed Sacrament will obtain a more abundant measure of grace."

- St. Alphonsus Liguori

Liturgy of the Hours

The daily prayer of the Church

Information from
<https://www.usccb.org/>

The Liturgy of the Hours, also known as the Divine Office or the Work of God (Opus Dei), is the daily prayer of the Church, marking the hours of each day and sanctifying the day with prayer. The Hours are a meditative dialogue on the mystery of Christ, using scripture and prayer. At times the dialogue is between the Church or individual soul and God; at times it is a dialogue among the members of the Church; and at times it is even between the Church and the world. The Divine Office "is truly the voice of the Bride herself addressed to her Bridegroom. It is the very prayer which Christ himself together with his Body addresses to the Father." (SC 84) The dialogue is always held, however, in the presence of God and using the words and wisdom of God. Each of the five canonical Hours includes selections from the Psalms that culminate in a scriptural proclamation. The two most important or hinge Hours are Morning and Evening Prayer. These each include a Gospel canticle: the Canticle of Zechariah from Luke 1:68-79 for Morning Prayer (known as the Benedictus), and the Canticle of Mary from Luke 1:46-55 for Evening Prayer (known as the Magnificat). The Gospel canticle acts as a kind of meditative extension of the scriptural proclamation in light of the Christ event. Morning and Evening Prayer also include intercessions that flow from the scriptural proclamation just as the Psalms prepare for it.

In the Hours, the royal priesthood of the baptized is exercised, and this sacrifice of praise is thus connected to the sacrifice of the Eucharist, both preparing for and flowing from the Mass.

"The hymns and litanies of the Liturgy of the Hours integrate the prayer of the psalms into the age of the Church, expressing the symbolism of the time of day, the liturgical season, or the feast being celebrated. Moreover, the reading from the Word of God at each Hour (with the subsequent responses or troparia) and readings from the Fathers and spiritual masters at certain Hours, reveal more deeply the meaning of the mystery being celebrated, assist in understanding the psalms, and prepare for silent prayer." (CCC 1177)

Why Pray the Liturgy of the Hours?

- Prayer Gives Catholics deeper recognition of the sacredness of each day and all creation
- Breaks the day up into times of prayer, which makes the entire day more prayerful
- Strengthens their relationship with God
- Promotes solidarity within the Church

HOW DO YOU PRAY THE LITURGY OF THE HOURS?

The Divine Office or Liturgy of the Hours is the set of prayers (psalms, hymns, readings and other prayers) that the Church has put together to be prayed during different times of the day.
